

Lockbox Statistics for the Week of September 2, 2012

☒ This Week's Lockbox Activity Decreases in Both Oregon and Washington

For the week ending on 9/2/12, these charts show the number of times RMLS™ subscribers opened Supra lockboxes in Washington and Oregon. Compared to the previous week, both states dropped off a little over 6% from the gains of the week before. This is very likely due to the anticipation of the beginning school year and the Labor Day weekend.
