

Homeownership Opportunities Certification Course (Tigard)

Developed to help address buyers' concerns about homeownership affordability, the HOC program provides practical, hands-on information about financing programs and products that may help financially challenged or first-time homebuyers in the Portland metropolitan region. PMAR members receive discounted registration, five CE credits are offered, and lunch will be provided. Visit PMAR's website for more information and to download a registration form.