

Law and Rule Required Course (Florence)

Any individual renewing their real estate license is required to attend a three-hour course entitled "Law and Rule Required Course." The subject matter and objectives are established by the real estate agency and must be taught by a qualified instructor sponsored by a certified education provider. This course will be presented by Alan K. Brickley of First American Counsel, and is worth 3CE. Details can be found on this flyer for the event.