

Mastering Positive Change in Today's World / CRS 103 (Portland)

The Council of Residential Specialists (CRS) invites you attend Mastering Positive Change in Today's World (CRS 103), which will teach you to reframe challenges in today's housing market and consider them opportunities to build a successful business. Instructor Chandra Hall will cover stress management, time management, strategic goal setting, personal motivation, and life planning. Educational credit will be available.

Registration will soon be available via the Oregon CRS website!
