

Property Tax Appeal Process (Portland)

Join RMLS™ at the Portland office as Steve Anderson CRB presents the Property Tax Appeal Process. Steve has seven years of experience working in the property tax system. He will share insights and specific knowledge regarding this often misunderstood process, using lessons from the thousands of cases he has heard during his career.

Specific topics include timelines for the tax appeal process in Oregon, evidentiary rules for BOPTA and beyond, who has the right to appeal, who can represent the petitioner, the hearing process, and more.

This class is free and worth 1.5CE in Oregon, but attendees must register. Register for the Property Tax Appeal Process on November 20th.