

Omitted (Beaverton)

Properties

RMLS™ debuts a new training facility in Beaverton this November with Omitted Properties with Steve Anderson. In this one-hour class, attendees will learn what an omitted property is and how it can affect your buyer/seller. Attendees will learn what the causes are, and how an assessor determines whether a property is eligible for an omitted property notice.

Learn more and register for Omitted Properties on December 9, 2015 in Beaverton.

Shaky Ground: Earthquake Predictions in Oregon (Portland)

The Greater Portland Area Chapter of the Women's Council of REALTORS® invites you to attend Shaky Ground: Earthquake Predictions in Oregon with Professor Scott Burns of Portland State University. One CE credit is available for attendees.

Register for Shaky Ground: Earthquake Predictions in Oregon. Registration includes lunch, with vegetarian meals available upon request.

The Property Tax Appeals Process (Beaverton)

RMLS™ debuts a new training facility in Beaverton this November with The Property Tax Appeals Process. Steve Anderson has seven years of experience working in the property tax system. He will share insights and specific knowledge about this often misunderstood process, using lessons from the thousands of cases he has heard during his career. Topics will include timelines for the tax appeal process in Oregon, evidentiary rules for BOPTA, who has the right to appeal, who can represent the petitioner, and the hearing process.

Learn more and register for The Property Tax Appeals Process on December 9, 2015 in Beaverton.