

Omitted Properties (Portland)

In this one-hour class, attendees will learn from Steve Anderson about what an omitted property is and how it can affect your buyer/seller. Attendees will learn what the causes are, and how an assessor determines whether a property is eligible for an omitted property notice.

Learn more and register for Omitted Properties on December 10, 2015 in Portland.

The Property Tax Appeals Process (Portland)

Steve Anderson has seven years of experience working in the property tax system. In The Property Tax Appeals Process, he will share insights and specific knowledge about this often misunderstood process, using lessons from the thousands of cases he has heard during his career. Topics will include timelines for the tax appeal process in Oregon, evidentiary rules for BOPTA, who has the right to appeal, who can represent the petitioner, and the hearing process.

Learn more and register for The Property Tax Appeals Process on December 10, 2015 in Portland.