

Market Smarter: Tech Tools for Real Estate Professionals (Vancouver)

Join RMLS™ and ListHub for a free one-hour seminar to learn about the latest trends in online marketing and enhancements that are available to help you communicate more effectively with clients and convert more leads.

Highlights include:

- A review of the free features in the ListHub dashboard to help you take control of your online marketing
- Simple time-saving tools to win listings and get referrals
- Manage and respond to leads faster, all from your mobile device
- Auto-email reports to engage clients and demonstrate the value only a real estate professional can provide.

If that wasn't enough, attendees have the chance to win a $250 Visa gift card!

Morning and afternoon sessions will be available.
