

OAR Candidate Training Academy (Salem)

Thinking about running for office? The Oregon Association of REALTORS® is hosting a free training session for REALTORS® and REALTOR®-friendly candidates on Friday, July 18th in Salem.

Candidate Training Academy was developed to give potential political candidates an introduction to and expectation of how to run for office. It gives candidates a valuable head start on their political journey as well as information on running a successful campaign.

This session is free, but registration is required before Monday, July 14th at noon! Register on the Oregon Association of REALTORS® website.
